

Those facing homelessness through job loss, health situations, mental illness issues, fire, and many other factors need a safe place to rest, recuperate, and resume an active life.

But too many souls do not have a safe place and are treated unjustly and without dignity. God loves all, so we are called to organize...

Event Live-Streamed

info@concordpc.org

Panel: A panel composed of Rabbi Sonya Starr, Policy Director of Housing Alliance of Delaware, a member of the Episcopal Church of Saints Andrew and Matthew, and members of Concord Presbyterian will share information and insight from their lived experiences.

Next steps: We will then focus on actions we are called to take to help our neighbors. Invite your friends!
