Welcome		Pastor Julia Burkley (she/her)
Minute for Mission	Coffee Drive for Friendship House	Nancy Tucker
*Call To Worship	Alleluia, alleluia: Christ has Risen! Death did not get the last word! Alleluia, alleluia: Hope is alive here with us today! Alleluia, alleluia: The world has changed. And, yet there is still trouble in our world. Wars are still being fought. People are still suffering. Alleluia, alleluia: God is still here, bringing hope in the midst of it all. Thanks be to God we worship a with-us God.
*Hymn	That Easter Day with Joy Was Bright	No. 254
Call of Confession
*Prayer of Confession	Holy God, we often need to see it to believe it. We need to witness challenges and pain in the face to actually believe that the world can be that broken, that painful. We need to touch wounds to see. Lord, forgive us when we don't believe others, when we dismiss them and ourselves. Help us to be filled with compassion, with faith, with the desire to change the world from a place where people are hurt to one where peace reigns.  [Time of silent prayer]
*Assurance of Pardon	Jesus knew what his disciples needed. He let them see his wounds with grace and love. He didn't chide them. He met them with mercy. And God does the same for us, time and time again. This is the good news of the gospel: In Jesus Christ we are forgiven.
*Response	Christ the Lord has Risen Today!	No. 245, v. 2
*Sharing the Peace
Wondering Time		Christina Pressley (she/her)

*Hymn	We Walk by Faith and Not by Sight	No. 817
Prayer for Illumination	God, you met the disciples as they were: with compassion. Meet us the same way. Help us to understand you through your Word in the way that we need to today. Amen.
